

LEVEL GUIDES

ADULT SKI

Level 1

This is my first time or I'm still skiing on nursery slopes and learning to snowplough turn.

Level 2

I can snowplough turn competently on green runs.

Level 3

I'm comfortable on blue runs. I'm no longer a plough turner but I'm not quite parallel.

Level 4

I can already consistently perform basic parallel turns and feel happy on groomed red runs.

Level 5

I'm happy tackling all pistes in a confident parallel.

Level 6

I'm happy skiing everywhere parallel, and in varying conditions on or off-piste, steep or bumpy.

SNOWBOARD

Level 1

This is my first time.

Level 2

I can turn heelside to toeside and toeside to heelside on easy terrain such as a green run, snowdome, or dry slope.

Level 3

I can ride and turn on blue runs. On green runs, I link my turns and carry my speed from one turn to the next.

Level 4

I'm happy riding on red runs. I can ride fast and make basic switch turns on easy slopes.

Level 5

I can ride on all marked runs. On easy slopes, I can grip and carve. I have done a bit of off-piste and freestyle.

KIDS SKI

Whippersnappers (4 - 5 yrs)

This is my first time or I'm still skiing on nursery slopes and learning to snowplough turn.

Wallabies (6 - 12 yrs)

This is my first time or I'm still skiing on nursery slopes and learning to snowplough turn.

Young Arrows (5 - 7 yrs) & Arrows (6-12 yrs)

I can already take lifts (drag/chair) and ski green runs doing good plough turns.

Bombers (6 - 12 yrs)

I can happily bomb down blue runs but my skis aren't always parallel.

Rockets (8 - 13 yrs)

I can already ski parallel turns down red slopes.

Freeride (10 - 13 yrs)

I am a strong parallel skier that can ski on all pistes without any trouble.

Pro Rider (13 - 17 yrs)

I'm happy skiing everywhere parallel, and in varying conditions on or off-piste, steep or bumpy.
